U.S. Probation Officer Action:

After his release from the Bureau of Prisons on May 29, 2013, the offender ordered to attend drug treatment at the Bridge Drug Program in Irvington, New Jersey. Although his participation and adjustment in the drug program could be considered marginal, he has begun to show signs of improvement with his addiction. On September 4, 2013, we enrolled the offender in our in-house Moral Reconciliation Therapy (MRT) Group. During his participation in the program, he has expressed remorse for his past actions and has begun taking the necessary steps to lead a law abiding and drug free life. On November 22, 2013, this officer met with the executive director of the Answers Moving Forward Shelter in Irvington, New Jersey about a possible job opportunity for the offender. Although we have given the offender numerous opportunities to succeed, it seems that the offender's behavior may be changing for the better. At this time, we ask the Court to take no action on the above charges but, we recommend presentation of this document to Samuel Beckett as a formal reprimand, issued under the authority of the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
Luis R. Gonzalez
Senior U.S. Probation Officer
